Notes

Right to Work Checks

With effect from 1st December 2016 the Council has a legal duty not to issue operator or private hire or taxi driver licences to people disqualified by their immigration status from holding them. This has been introduced by the Government in order to prevent illegal working in the private hire vehicle and taxi sector.

The Immigration Act 2016 states that for all Operator and Taxi/Private Hire driver licence applications made (sent) on or after 1 December 2016, the Licensing Authority must comply with the legal requirement not to issue a licence to someone who is disqualified from holding the licence by reason of their immigration status.

The Licensing Authority must discharge this duty by requiring the applicant to submit one of a number of prescribed documents which show that the applicant has permission to be in the UK and undertake work as an operator or PHV or taxi driver.

The check must be performed when the applicant first applies for a licence or first applies to renew or extend their licence on or after 1 December 2016.

For those who have time-limited permission to be in the UK, the Council must repeat the check at each subsequent application to renew or extend the licence until such time as the applicant demonstrates that they are entitled to remain indefinitely in the UK.

Therefore, we must conduct 'right to a licence' checks on all applicants for operator or PHV or taxi driver licences. This means we will ask ALL applicants for such licences to provide us with one of the original documents/combination of documents set out at Annex A.

To ensure that we do not discriminate against anyone, we will treat all licence applicants in the same way when they first apply or renew their licence on or after 1 December 2016 during the licence application process. This demonstrates a fair, transparent and consistent application process. No assumptions will be made about a person's right to work in the UK or their immigration status on the basis of their nationality, ethnic or national origin, accent, the colour of their skin, or the length of time they have been resident in the UK.

The list of documents is set out at Annex A. You must provide the original document(s), as indicated in the published guidance, so that the check can take place. The document(s) will be copied and the copy retained by the licensing authority. The original document will be returned to you.

Annex A

Lists of acceptable documents for right to a licence checks. The lists of documents are based on those prescribed to show evidence of a right to work.

List A: No immigration restrictions on right to a licence in the UK.

Once you have undertaken the necessary check once in respect of an application made on or after 1 December 2016, you will not have to repeat the check when you subsequently apply to renew or extend your licence.
