Dear Mr Bore,

As you know, the Council has been considering your Interim Findings on Mid Sussex's housing need and housing requirement. A number of complex issues are involved, and the outcome will have far-reaching consequences for the District.

The Council has not yet reached a concluded view on the way forward it wishes to take, and in those circumstances it would not be appropriate to begin the discussion about further work which might, on certain assumptions, be required to be undertaken. Consequently, we do not feel that the examination hearing currently fixed for Friday 3 March 2017 would serve a useful purpose in expeditiously progressing the plan.

We intend to write to you again within the next few weeks, and will discuss through the Programme Officer a re-fixing of the session on housing requirement work for the not too distant future.

Yours sincerely,

Chris Tunnell
Interim Head of Economic Promotion and Planning

Working together for a better Mid Sussex
