Dear Sally
Further to my email and letter of yesterday please see the response from the case officer below.

I did reply to Andy and asked him to explain why we couldn't have a conversation. I have yet to have an email or phone response to this request.

I believe it would be more constructive to properly engage in dialogue, and this is in the spirit of NPPF 38 which encourages LPAs to work proactively with applicants.

Indeed so much more could be achieved with a video meeting. I am having video meetings with other planning authorities and they are a really positive way forward so that we can involve the relevant experts. It would be really helpful if we could include our respective landscape architects to assist in understanding the current objection to the proposal. Is this something you can support or facilitate?

Kind regards,
Lisa
